A Poem to My Dear Teacher

My family is very poor, and my parents are not able to pay for my junior high schooling. Thank to Mr. Clark, my homeroom teacher, he helped me get a fund from a foundation, so I could keep on my study. He also asked me to be a classroom helper and to make more friends. Now I enjoy my school life, and I want to show my thanks with this poem.

Not Just A Teacher, But A Friend

by Darby

I had no where to turn, had no where to go.
This is just something I think you need to know.
When I first met you, I wondered I could trust you.
After I talked with you, I knew I could go through.

As each day grew longer,
Our trust became stronger.
Each time I wanted to cry,
You stayed there right by my side.

Even though sometimes you don't have time,
You at least ask me "Are you fine?"
Even though sometimes I am not,
I still smile and say yes "I'm alright"

I am so glad
That you were there when I was sad
And this is what makes you
Not just my 7th grade teacher, my friend.
