(On the Phone)

Ms. Black: Hello, Homeroom Teacher Office.

Jason: Hello, this is Jason Green of Class 807. May I speak to my homeroom teacher, Ms. Black?

Ms. Black: Hi, Jason. This is Ms. Black, speaking.

Jason: Ms. Black, I am sorry. I have to take a sick leave today. I have a bad cold.

Ms. Black: Too bad. I thought you are as strong as Superman. Ha. Just kidding. Who is with you at home today?

Jason: My grandma. She can take care of me, but I... (coughing)

Ms. Black: Oh, no. It seems a serious cold, right? Do you have a high fever?

Jason: Yes. In fact, it's flu, and the doctor gave me some advice to fight the flu.

Ms. Black: Fine, but won't you stay home for some more days?

Jason: Well, I'll see and decide tomorrow. The flu makes me terribly sick. I hope I can get well as soon as possible. Oh, sorry ...(blowing his nose)

Ms. Black: Hey, Jason. let's stop here, and you go for a rest.

Jason: Yes, but my PE report...

Ms. Black: Don't worry. We can talk about your schoolwork later when you come back. Take care of yourself.

Jason: I will. Thank you, Ms. Black. Bye.
