解答

第一部分、聽力測驗

二、根據聽到的短文內容與問題，選出正確的答案。

Hello! Welcome to Health-Finder Living Center. I am Paul, your fitness couch. I will help you lose weight and keep healthy during the three-month exercise program. Getting in shape and feeling healthy couldn't be easier. Knowing what to do is not enough. So, you must take action and keep it on. Today, we are starting with your eating habits. Making small changes in your eating habits can make a big difference in your life. Here is a "food diary." Knowing what you eat now will help you make changes. Every day, please write down when you eat, what you eat, how much you eat, where you eat, and how you're feeling when you eat. For example, on Tuesday 3:30 pm, you eat 2 chocolate cookies at work, and you feel sad at that time. Well, have you got what I mean?... Good. Next time, please take this diary here and I'll check your eating habits. According to your notes, we'll do the planning for your meals. See you next Tuesday.

Questions:

1. What is Paul's job?
(A) A doctor in a hospital.
(B) A cook in a restaurant.
(C) A coach in a health center.
2. How long will the exercise program be?
(A) 3 months. (B) 3.5 months. (C) 13 months.
3. Which is Paul's example of the Food Diary?

(A)	Food Diary Example: Tuesday 3:13 pm 2 chocolate cookies, at work, feeling sad.	(B)	Food Diary Example: Tuesday 3:30 pm 2 chocolate cookies, at work, feeling sad.	(C)	Food Diary Example: Thursday 3:30 pm 2 chocolate cookies, having a rest, feeling sad.
-----	---	-----	---	-----	--

4. What are they going to do next time?
(A) Doing the planning for meals.
(B) Writing a report about eating habits.
(C) Checking the food lists on the diary.
5. According to Paul, why isn't it easy to be in shape healthily?
(A) Because people have little knowledge about food and exercise.
(B) Because people must know what to do and keep on doing every day.
(C) Because people change their eating habits and life styles all the time.
